AFRICAN DIASPORA INVESTMENT SYMPOSIUM 2019

ALMAZ NEGASH WELCOMES PARTICIPANTS

Mountain View , 25.01.2019, 15:18 Time

USPA NEWS - On Thursday January 24 2019, the President of African Diaspora Network, Almaz Negash delivered a welcome message to all African in the Diaspora, Businessman and Entrepreneurs attending to the 2019 African Diaspora Investment Symposium at the Computer History Museum located in Silicon Valley, California. Here is her powerful message.

Dear Friends,

The African Diaspora Network welcomes you to our fourth annual African Diaspora Investment Symposium (ADIS2019).

Entrepreneurs, innovators, investors, and public and private sector leaders are invited to join us for this catalytic convening that seeks to uplift the African continent by building bridges among Africans, Diasporans, and friends of Africa.

From January 24 to 26, cross-sector change makers will gather at the Computer History Museum located in Silicon Valley, the innovation and entrepreneurial capital of the world.

ADIS2019 aims to inform, engage, and inspire participants to be agents of change and active contributors to Africa's development.

Our 2019 theme "Amplifying Abundance in Africa: Human Capital, Entrepreneurship, Innovation, Investment" explores intersecting ecosystems of infrastructure and economy in Africa.

Follow the footsteps of entrepreneurs who have walked the path of pursuing investments and opportunities in Africa and learn from the stories and strategies of our growing community.

The two-day conference begins with an evening pre-symposium networking launch, igniting a spirit of community, knowledge-sharing, reflection, and action among attendees for the duration of the two-day symposium.

We invite you to celebrate and unearth the resources, research, and expertise foundational to amplifying abundance in Africa at ADIS2019.
